

TRANSFER INFORMATION SHEET

Application to Register Restricted and Prohibited Firearms Acquired by Transfer

BEFORE YOU START...

USE THIS FORM or call 1 800 731-4000 to apply to transfer the ownership and registration of a restricted or prohibited firearm from one business or individual to another business or individual by means of purchase, trade or gift. The class of the firearm appears on the registration certificate.

A person may transfer a non restricted firearm if at the time of the transfer:

- the buyer holds a licence that authorizes them to possess and acquire that class of firearm; and
- the seller of the firearm has no reason to believe that the buyer is not authorized to possess and acquire that class of firearm.

To confirm that the buyer holds a valid licence the seller may contact the Canadian Firearms Program at 1-800-731-4000.

TO APPLY TO TRANSFER FIREARMS BY TELEPHONE, call 1 800 731-4000. Have the following information with you when you call:

- your firearms licence.
- your registration certificate number and firearm identification number.
- the new owner's name and address.
- the new owner's Possession and Acquisition Licence (PAL).

BUSINESSES CAN ALSO APPLY TO TRANSFER FIREARMS ONLINE AT
HTTP://WWW.RCMP-GRC.GC.CA/CFP

THE APPLICANT/RECIPIENT IS THE BUYER OF THE FIREARM(S) AND MUST COMPLETE Sections A through F of this application form.

APPLICANT AND CURRENT FIREARM OWNER. As a rule, both need a valid firearms licence or a valid business firearms licence. The applicant's licence must have acquisition privileges for the class of firearm being transferred (see Section A).

THE CURRENT OWNER MUST COMPLETE Sections G through J (Notice of Transfer of Restricted and Prohibited Firearms to a New Owner).

SUBMISSION OF THIS FORM DOES NOT MEAN THAT THE TRANSFER HAS BEEN COMPLETED. A new registration certificate will be issued and mailed to the applicant when the transfer is approved and the firearm is registered to the new owner.

IF YOU NEED ADDITIONAL SPACE, list all information requested on a separate sheet of paper, add your name and licence number to the top of each sheet and attach the sheet to your application.

The following information explains certain parts of the form and will help you answer some of the questions. You should read the instructions as you fill in your form. If you are still unsure about a question, or require another form, call 1 800 731-4000. Additional information is available on our Web site at <http://www.rcmp-grc.gc.ca/cfp>.

Mail your completed application form and all attachments to:

Royal Canadian Mounted Police
P.O. Box 1200
Miramichi, N.B. E1N 5Z3

A - APPLICANT INFORMATION

The applicant is the person or business receiving the firearms. If you are an individual, you must hold a valid possession and acquisition licence. If the applicant is a business, it must hold a valid business firearms licence. Individuals and businesses must hold the appropriate acquisition privileges for the class of firearm being transferred. For example, if the individual has a possession-only firearms licence for non-restricted firearms, they cannot take possession of a restricted firearm. They must apply for a Possession and Acquisition Licence (PAL) by submitting the form "Application for a Possession and Acquisition Licence under the Firearms Act (for Individuals Aged 18 and Over)" (RCMP GRC 5592 / CAFC 921).

Boxes 1 b) to d)

Print your full name in Boxes 1 b) to d). If you are a business, print the full name of the person who is authorized to act on behalf of the business in Boxes 1 b) to d).

Box 1 e)

If you are a business, print the legal name of the business in Box 1 e). If you are an individual, leave Box 1 e) blank.

B - CURRENT OWNER INFORMATION

The current owner is the person or business that is transferring the firearms to you.

Box 2 a)

Print the firearms licence number of the current owner of the firearms in Box 2 a).

Boxes 2 b) to e)

If the current owner is an individual, print the individual's full name in Boxes 2 b) to d). If the current owner is a business, print the legal name of the business in Box 2 e).

C - FIREARM STORAGE INFORMATION FOR RESTRICTED OR PROHIBITED FIREARMS ONLY*(For Individuals Only)*Boxes 3 a) to f)

If you are an individual applying to register restricted or prohibited firearms acquired through transfer, you must indicate where the firearms will be stored. If they will be stored at your home, check the box and leave Boxes 3 a) to f) blank. If your restricted or prohibited firearms are to be stored at a place other than your residence, as recorded in the Canadian Firearm Registry, you require authorization from the Chief Firearms Officer of your province or territory. Indicate all the locations and which firearms are to be stored at each location on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to your application.

If the applicant is a business, leave Boxes 3 a) to f) blank.

D - APPLICANT'S DECLARATION

The new owner must sign and date the applicant declaration.

E - FIREARM INFORMATION

If you require more space, you may either photocopy the blank form or attach a separate page providing the required information.

Box a)

Restricted and prohibited firearms must be registered to the current owner before they may be transferred to you.

Box b)

The firearm identification number (FIN) is a unique identifying number that is assigned to a firearm by the Registrar of Firearms. The FIN is printed on the firearm registration certificate and, in some cases, may be stamped or engraved on the firearm or applied as a sticker.

Box c)*Purpose for Acquiring the Firearm (For Individuals Only)

If you are an individual applying to register a restricted firearm or prohibited handgun, you are required to indicate the purpose for which the firearm will be used.

Target Practice or Shooting Competition - If the purpose for acquiring the firearm is for target practice or shooting competition and you are a member of a shooting club, print the name of the club in the space provided.

A shooting club is a non-profit organization whose activities include target practice or target-shooting competitions using restricted firearms or prohibited handguns at an approved shooting range. A shooting range is a place designed or intended for the safe discharge, on a regular or structured basis, of firearms for target practice or target-shooting competitions.

Gun Collection - For the firearm to qualify as part of a gun collection, you must already be recognized by the Chief Firearms Officer of your province or territory as a gun collector and the firearm must form part of a genuine gun collection. You are required to know the historical, technological or scientific characteristics that distinguish the firearms in the collection. If this is your first firearm in a collection, call 1 800 731-4000 for information on how to get recognition as a collector.

Lawful Profession or Occupation/Protection of Life - These purposes refer to very specific circumstances and, if you require a firearm for one of these purposes, call 1 800 731-4000 for more information.

F - FIREARM VERIFICATION*Boxes 4 a) to f)

All firearms are subject to verification upon transfer unless they have been previously verified. If the firearms have been previously verified, leave Boxes 4 a) to f) blank. If you are uncertain whether or not the firearms have been verified, or would like to find a verifier near you, please call 1 800 731-4000.

The verifier may use the box after Box b) in Section E - FIREARM INFORMATION to provide the Firearms Reference Table (FRT) number. The verifier must ensure that when they record the FRT number that they include the Barrel, Calibre and Shot (BCS) identifier exactly as shown on the FRT (i.e. "parent" and "child" records).

If the description of the firearm differs from the information on the registration certificate, the verifier must provide a corrected description using form "Firearm Verification" (RCMP GRC 5547 / CAFC 804) or on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to this application.

NOTICE OF TRANSFER OF RESTRICTED AND PROHIBITED FIREARMS TO A NEW OWNER

G - CURRENT OWNER INFORMATION

Sections G, H, I and J must be completed by the current owner of the firearm.

The current owner is the person or business that currently owns the firearm and is transferring it to another person or business.

If the firearm is currently registered to more than one owner, use only one owner's name on the form and list the other owners on a separate sheet of paper, and include the same information for each person as requested on the form. In the case of multiple owners, all owners are required to provide their signature next to their name, showing that they agree to the transfer.

Boxes 5 b) to d)

If you are providing notice of the transfer on behalf of a business, print the name of the person who is authorized to act on behalf of the business. If you are an individual providing notice of the transfer, print your name.

Box 5 e)

If you are a business, print the legal name of the business in Box 5 e). If you are an individual, leave Box 5 e) blank.

H - FIREARM RECIPIENT INFORMATION

The firearm recipient is the individual or business receiving the firearms. If the recipient is an individual, he or she must hold a valid possession and acquisition licence. If the recipient is a business, it must hold a valid business firearms licence. Individuals and businesses must hold the appropriate acquisition privileges for the class of firearm being transferred. For example, if the individual has a firearms licence for non-restricted firearms, they cannot take possession of a restricted firearm. They must apply for a Possession and Acquisition Licence (PAL) for restricted firearms by submitting the form "Application for a Possession and Acquisition Licence under the Firearms Act (for Individuals Aged 18 and Over)" (RCMP GRC 5592 / CAFC 921).
